What are the facts?

What assumptions am I making?
What can I learn?

What are they thinking, feeling, and wanting?
What am I responsible for?

What are my choices?
What's best to do now?
What's possible?

Whose fault is it?

What's wrong with me?
What's wrong with them?

Why am I such a failure?
Why are they so stupid?
Why bother?

The Choice Map™ and You

Imagine it's you who's standing at the crossroads on the left side of the Choice Map. Something has just happened. Now you have to solve a problem or make a decision. Maybe it's related to an important goal in some area in your life. Perhaps it's with your business or career. Maybe it's in a relationship with family, friends, or colleagues. It's about your health, finances, or plans for the future.

Do this experiment while you think about that situation. First, ask yourself Judger questions (see below) and notice how they affect your mood and confidence. Now, breathe, switch and instead ask yourself Learner questions (see below). What was it like the second time? What about your mood and confidence? What solutions and possibilities can you see now?

You really can change your questions and change your life. When you find yourself in Judger and want to be in Learner instead, ask yourself Switching questions and "reset" to Learner, including: Am I in Judger? Is this how I want to feel? Where would I rather be? and How else can I think about this?

Use the Choice Map™ as a powerful tool for getting better results. It's simple and it works!

Judger Questions* include:

- What's wrong with me?
- Whose fault is it?
- Why are they so stupid?
- How can I prove that I'm right?
- Haven't we been there, done that?
- Why bother?

Results of Judger Questions:

- A mood of pessimism, stress, and limitation
- A mindset that's judgmental, reactive, inflexible
- Relating with "attack or defensive" behaviors

Learner Questions* include:

- What do I want?
- What works?
- What are the facts and what can I learn?
- What are my choices?
- What action steps make sense?
- What's possible?

Results of Learner Questions:

- A mood of optimism, hope, and possibilities
- A mindset that's thoughtful, understanding, flexible
- Relating that is connected and collaborative

*We all ask both kinds of questions and we have the capacity to choose which ones to ask — moment by moment by moment.
